ORDER:-

In the G.O read above, Andhra Pradesh Government attracted investments worth 22500 crores with 117 MOUs under Tourism Sector and which have been applauded by several industry bodies of Andhra Pradesh aims to be preferred destination for tourists and investors alike. While a number of MOU's were signed in Global Investor Summit-2023 held at Visakhapatnam, there is a need to review and examine these MOU's both technically and financially at relevant levels and further vetted by an independent agency. Accordingly, Government have constituted two (2) committees to fast track the investments after due diligence and review the process. Moreover, there is a need for Chief Technical Examiner to scrutinize and review the technical and financial feasibilities of projects.

2. Government, after careful examination of the matter and in consultation with TR & B Department, have hereby decided to utilise the services of Sri.K.Seshu Kumar, Chief Technical Examiner (R&B) in Tourism Wing of YAT & C Department as and when required by the YAT & C (Tourism) Department to scrutinize and review the projects in addition to his normal duties in TR & B Department.
